U.S. Army in Europe by the numbers

- $14 billion is the approximate amount of European contributions to Afghanistan since 2001
- $9.7 billion in facilities (Plant Replacement Value (PRV)) was returned by us this decade, 18% more PRV than the Army's major BRAC 2005 closures in the continental U.S.; 570 sites reduced from peak 1980's posture in Europe
- $112 million is the annual savings once the Heidelberg, Mannheim and Darmstadt garrisons are closed and we have consolidated the HQ in Wiesbaden
- 75,000 USAREUR Soldiers since 2003 have deployed
- 30,000 will be the number of Soldiers in USAREUR in 2015, with the appropriate mission command, movement & maneuver, intelligence, fires, sustainment, and protection to provide a flexible ground force to engage effectively with allies and partners, build trust and strengthen interoperability; and conduct emergent 21st century missions
- 18,000 USAREUR Soldiers in 2010 deployed to, fought in or redeployed from Iraq and Afghanistan
- 17,500 European ally/partner nation personnel have participated in multinational exercises since 2005
- 3500 Soldiers from 15 nations will participate in counter-IED training at the Joint Maneuver Training Center this year
- 1,200 personnel from 18 different Nations conducted OMLT and POMLT training at JMTTC
- 600 of our European partner nations Soldiers have given their lives in Afghanistan and Iraq
- 526 partner nation Soldiers from 4 nations trained with the 170th Infantry Brigade Combat Team as they prepared to deploy to Afghanistan this year
- 400 NCOs from 25 countries attended the Warrior Leader Course at JMTTC
- 155 Soldiers from 29 nations attended the first ever ISAF Counter Insurgency Academy outside of Afghanistan
- 90% of coalition forces in Afghanistan come from European allies
- 30% of USAREUR forces on average since 2003 have been deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan
- 30 exercises with Soldiers from 38 nations were led by USAREUR in 2010
- 3 of the 4 non-US veto-wielding permanent members of the United Nations Security Council (France, Russia, United Kingdom) are from the USAREUR area of responsibility.
